Laminate Tubes

Our laminate packaging tubes not only ensure maximum protection and preservation of the contained product, but also promote a sustainable life cycle that reduces your environmental footprint. With an elegant and customisable design, we offer solutions that elevate your brand, standing out from competitors in the market and speaking directly to the hearts of consumers. Rigorous quality controls ensure each tube meets the highest standards. Our Flexo and letterpress can print up to 7 colors, embellish the product with silver and gold foil: our choices for embossing, digital printing and screen printing options enhance the visual appeal of the product.
